2015 Outlook

A senior class that has been to three consecutive NCAA Tournaments and earned a pair of conference regular-season and tournament titles returns hungry for even more success in 2015.

Though Third-Team All-American Kelli Browning, along with key contributors Leah McNary, Katie Neisler and Michelle Sicner have graduated, expectations remain sky-high after a 25-win team adds in the nation's No. 11-ranked recruiting class.

Four starters return to the fold, including senior setter Maggie Baumert. Baumert transferred in from Georgia and made an immediate impact, leading the Bluejays in assists in 2014. Pushing Baumert for time will be sophomore Kenzie Crawford, a talented setter in her own right who played primarily as a defensive specialist last season.

Lauren Smith

Middle blocker Lauren Smith owns two years of starting experience and was a Second Team All-BIG EAST performer a year ago after ranking second on the club in hitting percentage and blocks. She elevated her game in the postseason, earning BIG EAST Tournament MVP honors while helping the Bluejays claim the crown.

Smith will be joined at the middle blocker position by a freshman, with rookies Brittany Lawrence, Megan Ballenger and Kelsey O'Connell in contention for that role.

Another junior with two years of starting experience is outside hitter Jess Bird. Though she missed most of September after knee surgery last fall, Bird still recovered in time to earn First Team All-BIG EAST accolades. She's been named 2015 BIG EAST Preseason Player of the Year.

Bird will have plenty of company in the fight for spots on the pins.

Sophomore Marysa Wilkinson was a regular throughout the second half of last season and was part of the All-Tournament Team at the BIG EAST Championships, while serving as the team's right-side hitter.

Another Bluejay with considerable experience on the outside is senior Melanie Jereb. Jereb was an all-conference performer as a freshman in 2012 and can play a variety of roles, earning a pair of BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Week accolades after moving to libero for five weeks last season.

Jereb's classmate, Lizzy Stivers, has also played some outside hitter but has primarily been a serving specialist since enrolling at Creighton.

The nucleus of CU's vaunted recruiting class could also fight for time on the outside.

South Dakota's Gatorade Player of the Year Taryn Kloth is the highest-ranked recruit (No. 18) under 13th-year coach Kirsten Bernthal Booth. Kloth has great size (6-foot-4) with good mobility and could be a candidate to play six rotations in her rookie season.

Jaali Winters arrives as the nation's No. 41 recruit after leading Ankeny (Iowa) Centennial to the state title, while her former prep teammate Ballenger could also play on the outside when not in the middle.

Creighton's defense figures to be rock solid once again, with seniors Kate Elman and Ashley Jansen leading the way.

Elman is already the program's all-time digs leader, while Jansen has become a fixture in the back row and led last year's squad in aces.

The aforementioned Jereb and Stivers, as well as junior Amanda Foje, figure to play a prominent role in the Bluejay defense. Also contributing will be newcomer Samantha Bohnet, who left high school a semester early and enrolled at Creighton in the spring.

As has become the norm, Creighton's non-conference schedule includes a plethora of national title contenders, including home matches against Wisconsin and Nebraska in addition to contests outside of Omaha against Illinois, USC and Kentucky among others.

Creighton also will host the BIG EAST Championships in late November, and Omaha will host the NCAA Championships three weeks later.

Kirsten Bernthal Booth

Two-time National Coach of the Year Kirsten Bernthal Booth has led Creighton to four NCAA Tournaments in the last five years and a spot in the Top 25 three straight seasons. Now, as she enters her 13th campaign at Creighton, Booth looks to sweep conference titles for the third time in four seasons with one of the nation's emerging programs.

Last fall, Creighton finished 25-9 while winning BIG EAST regular-season and tournament titles. The Bluejays earned a spot in a third straight NCAA Tournament after becoming the school's first team in any sport to win a BIG EAST Tournament title. Kelli Browning paced CU's winningest senior class ever by earning Third Team All-America honors at year's end from the AVCA.

Creighton's 2013 campaign opened with a win over No. 13 BYU en route to a Hampton Inn Invitational title, and CU led the nation in blocks per set. That club was anchored by all-league picks Leah McNary and Browning, reaching the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the third time in four years.

Booth owns an impressive past, both on and off the court.

Creighton has gone 235-137 while averaging 1,143 fans per home match in Booth's tenure, compared to an 93-152 mark and 215 fans per match the nine years before her arrival. All of Booth's teams have qualified for the conference tournament, with eight of the last nine squads reaching the semifinals.

Booth's .632 winning percentage and 235 wins are easily the best in Creighton volleyball's modern history. Booth owns 347 career victories, an average of 23.1 wins per season, when you add in her 112 wins in three years at Kirkwood (Iowa) Community College

In her first 12 seasons, Booth has coached 22 First Team and 11 Second Team all-conference picks, while also recruiting and coaching 12 MVC All-Freshman Team honorees. Booth's teams have won nine AVCA Team Academic Awards and featured CoSIDA Academic All-Americans Emily Greisch (2006) and Megan Bober (2012).

Booth was named 2012 Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year and CaptainU National Coach of the Year after the best season in program history. Creighton finished 29-4 while sweeping the MVC regular-season and tournament titles in a season for the ages. CU went 12-1 at home (9-0 in MVC play) and produced a program-record 17-match win streak that carried into the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Bober was named MVC Player of the Year, while Browning was tabbed as MVC Defensive Player of the Year. Both women were named All-American Honorable Mention by the AVCA. In addition, Creighton landed Melanie Jereb and Kate Elman on the MVC's All-Freshman Team.

The 2011 season saw the Bluejays claim three First Team All-Valley picks for just the second time in program history, including the program's first MVC Libero of the Year accolade.

Creighton's 2010 NCAA Tournament run included an inspiring first-round victory over No. 16 Iowa State, and helped the Bluejays earn votes in the year-ending top-25 poll. The campaign saw the Bluejays rally from a slow start to finish third in the Missouri Valley Conference. Creighton reached the MVC Tournament finals for the first time after beating Wichita State in the semifinals, which helped secure a much-deserved at-large bid. Bober was named First Team All-MVC and All-Central Region, going on to earn Honorable Mention All-America accolades.

Add it up, and it quickly becomes evident why Booth was named 2010 National Coach of the Year by Collegiate Volleyball Update.

The at-large berth into the 2010 NCAA Tournament came not long after back-to-back second-place finishes in the Missouri Valley Conference resulted in near-misses to the 2007 and 2008 NCAA Tournaments.

The 2008 Bluejay squad finished in sole possession of second place for the first time in program history after going 15-3 in league play. Playing the most difficult non-conference schedule in program history, Creighton finished 18-9 overall and had the second-best RPI of any team to not receive an NCAA bid.

That club saw Korie Lebeda close her career as Creighton's all-time assist leader, while Jessica Houts was named MVC Defensive Player of the Year and earned AVCA All-America Honorable Mention accolades. Omaha product Amanda Cvejdlík joined Lebeda and Houts on the All-MVC First Team, while libero Bianca Rivera was a Second Team All-Valley selection.

Creighton's 2007 team finished 21-10 and tied for second in the MVC with a 14-4 record. The Jays became the first team in history to rally from an 0-2 deficit to win at UNI on September 21, and hosted a record-setting crowd (13,081) at CenturyLink Center Omaha on September 1. Lebeda set a Creighton record for career assists, Rivera a record for single-season digs, and Kelly Goc broke season and career marks for hitting percentage. Goc would also become the program's first All-America Honorable Mention on the court.

Booth's 2006 team won a then-record 21 matches, picking up in-season tournament titles at Montana State and Middle Tennessee, and reached the MVC Tournament semifinals. They also took a set from eventual national champion Nebraska and picked up three wins over long-time nemesis Illinois State and a victory at Wichita State.

Kirsten Bernthal Booth

The 2005 campaign was highlighted by the program's first win at Northern Iowa, a win over Marquette, and the title at the San Diego State Invitational. The Bluejays finished 16-14.

Booth's 2004 club won a then-record 18 matches while also picking up tournament titles at events hosted by New Mexico and Missouri. Creighton was also the only club in the MVC to beat the regular-season and tourney champ, Wichita State, in 2004.

In 2003, Booth inherited a team that went 3-23 prior to her arrival and improved that nearly identical squad to a 12-18 mark in her debut season at Creighton. That fall, the Bluejays helped pave the foundation for a promising future by signing five Nebraska products that remains one of the program's top recruiting classes in history.

Booth has proven to be a popular coach among her players and within the Omaha community, which is a key factor in the team's record crowds, ranking among the top-50 nationally each of the last nine seasons.

Another reason that Creighton is a program on the rise is D.J. Sokol Arena inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center. The on-campus facility opened in 2009 to rave reviews and hosted six volleyball matches involving ranked teams in its inaugural year, including Creighton's four-set win over No. 25 Wichita State. Creighton is 63-21 in its six seasons at the facility, where it owns a 46-7 mark in conference play.

On the court, Booth was an All-State setter in high school at Lincoln (Neb.) East and Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association MVP in college at Truman State.

Off the court, she earned Academic All-American honors and was named the 1997 Missouri NCAA Woman of the Year.

Prior to coming to Creighton, Booth went a combined 112-41 in three seasons at Kirkwood Community College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. All three of her teams won at least 36 matches. Her 2000 team reached the NJCAA finals before falling to St. Clair College. Her 2001 team placed fourth nationally and her 2002 club won 39 matches and had seven players earn academic all-conference honors. Twice, she was named District Coach of the Year.

In addition to her coaching responsibilities, she served as the school's human resource coordinator, where she was in charge of staff development and wellness for all faculty and staff at Kirkwood.

Booth served as a volunteer coach with the University of Iowa in the fall of 1997, helping to run drills and scout opponents. The following spring, she served as interim head coach while running practice and doing other assorted administrative tasks. She later earned her master's degree in higher education administration with an emphasis in athletic administration from Iowa in 2000.

As an undergrad, Booth's teams at Truman State went 101-54 with her running the offense at setter. She was named the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletic Association Freshman of the Year in 1993, and earned All-MIAA accolades her final three seasons as well. She capped off her career in 1996 by earning MIAA Player of the Year honors and setting new school records for assists in a season (1,662) and career (6,077), the latter of which ranked third in NCAA history at the Division II level when she graduated. She remains among Truman's all-time leaders for digs (1,410), aces (127) and blocks (230) and was inducted into Truman State's Athletic Hall of Fame in October, 2011.

She was also a member of the Student Senate at Truman State, where she graduated magna cum laude with a degree in communications.

Growing up, Booth excelled in both tennis and volleyball at Lincoln East High School, where she is a member of the school's Athletic Hall of Fame. In tennis, she was a three-time All-American and two-time state champion at No. 1 singles.

Booth and her husband, Erik, reside in Omaha. The couple have three daughters: Reese (10), Hayden (8) and Berkeley (4).

Year-by-Year Under Kirsten Bernthal Booth

2014 (25-9, 16-2 BIG EAST, Final RPI of 34)

Creighton won both the regular-season and tournament titles in the BIG EAST while advancing to a third consecutive NCAA Tournament. The Bluejays opened the year 7-6 against a ruthless non-conference schedule, but did earn a win over former MVC rival Wichita State to win the Bluejay Invitational for the first time. The Jays avenged both regular-season losses in BIG EAST play with a 3-1 triumph over Seton Hall in the BIG EAST Championship final. Lauren Smith (MVP), Leah McNary and Marysa Wilkinson were named to the All-Tournament Team, while Kelli Browning and Jess Bird were named First Team All-Conference. Browning would close her career as CU's all-time leader in attack percentage and block assists while being named a Third Team All-American by the AVCA and the Omaha Sports Woman of the Year by the Omaha Sports Hall of Fame. The year also saw Kate Elman become CU's all-time digs leader.

2013 (23-9, 12-4 BIG EAST, Final RPI of 18)

Creighton's first season in the BIG EAST saw the Bluejays attain a best-ever year-end RPI of 18 to go with runner-up finishes in league play during both the regular-season and league tournament. Ranked 24th nationally in the preseason AVCA poll, Creighton opened a challenging non-conference schedule with a 3-1 win over No. 13 BYU, part of a stretch that also featured matches vs. California, Kansas, Cal State Northridge, UCLA, Hawai'i and Wichita State. Kelli Browning and Michelle Sicner were named All-American Honorable Mention by the AVCA, while Browning and Leah McNary were First Team All-BIG EAST. CU led the nation with 3.06 blocks per set. The Bluejays reached the NCAA Tournament for the third time in four seasons, defeating Arkansas before falling in four sets at Kansas.

2012 (29-4, 17-1 MVC, Final RPI of 24)

One of the best seasons by any women's team in Creighton history saw the Bluejays close their 19-year run in the MVC by winning the program's first Valley regular-season and Tournament titles. CU won regular-season tournaments at South Florida and Northern Colorado before clinching the outright league crown with a memorable 3-2 comeback win at rival Wichita State. The Jays swept the Shockers eight days later for the Valley Tourney title, then defeated Marquette in straight sets to open NCAA Tournament play before falling in four frames at Minnesota. Megan Bober was named MVC Player of the Year and Tournament MVP, while Kelli Browning was tabbed MVC Defensive Player of the Year after tying for the national lead with 204 blocks. Both women were named All-Americans Honorable Mention and were joined on the All-MVC First Team by freshman Melanie Jereb. Kirsten Bernthal Booth was named MVC Coach of the Year and CaptainU National Coach of the Year. Creighton also spent four weeks in the AVCA Top 25 for the first time, reaching as high as No. 21 before finishing No. 24.

2011 (17-14, 12-6 MVC, Final RPI of 74)

Creighton finished the 2011 season with a 17-14 mark, falling in the quarterfinals of the MVC Tournament. The Bluejays tied a program record with three First Team All-MVC picks (Megan Bober, Laurel Sanford and MVC Libero of the Year Julianne Mandolfo). Bober set an MVC single-season record with nine triple-doubles, while Mandolfo set CU single-season records for digs and digs per set. Leah McNary and Michelle Sicner, were named to the MVC's All-Freshman squad.

2010 (21-12, 13-5 MVC, Final RPI of 32)

Creighton's breakthrough seasons saw the Bluejays make their first NCAA Tournament, upset No. 16 Iowa State, and Kirsten Bernthal Booth claim National Coach of the Year honors from CVU.com. Creighton finished third in the MVC, the nation's No. 6-ranked conference, and then broke down another barrier by reaching its first conference tournament final. The Jays earned an at-large bid and beat Iowa State in five sets before falling at No. 12 Minnesota in the NCAA Tourney. Sophomore setter Megan Bober was named First Team All-MVC and All-American Honorable Mention as part of a balanced squad that ranked second nationally in digs per set (18.94).

2009 (14-17, 10-8 MVC, Final RPI of 86)

Creighton opened D.J. Sokol Arena inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center, setting a school record with 10 home wins. Creighton beat No. 25 Wichita State on Oct. 2 for its first win over a ranked opponent, and hosted the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament for the first time at year's end. The team overcame a 3-8 non-conference mark with a fourth-place finish in the MVC. Jessica Houts was named First Team All-MVC to lead a Creighton defense that ranked third nationally in blocks per set.

2008 (18-9, 15-3 MVC, Final RPI of 46)

Once again Creighton narrowly missed an NCAA bid, finishing with the second-best RPI of any team left out of the field. The Bluejays dropped key five-set matches to No. 21 LSU and UAB early in the year and a chance to pick up some key wins was lost when a tournament was cancelled due to a hurricane in Texas. Creighton cruised through the league with a 15-3 mark, including a sweep of UNI on the last weekend of the year, to finish alone in second place and set a program record with an eighth-straight win. However, the Bluejays dropped a five-set match to UNI in the MVC Tournament semifinals. Jessica Houts was named MVC Defensive Player of the Year and Honorable Mention All-American and joined teammates Korie Lebeda and Amanda Cvejdlík on the All-MVC First Team.

2007 (21-10, 14-4 MVC, Final RPI of 56)

Creighton didn't receive an NCAA Tournament at-large bid despite a second straight 21-10 campaign. The Jays tied for second in the MVC but despite one of the nation's top-15 toughest non-conference schedules, weren't among four MVC teams selected to the NCAA's. Kelly Goc and Korie Lebeda both repeated as First Team All-Valley picks, with Goc also named an All-American Honorable Mention. Allie Oelke was MVC Freshman of the Year and libero Bianca Rivera set a single-season dig mark. Creighton averaged a record 1,860 fans per home match, hosting more than 13,000 at CenturyLink Center Omaha for a Sept. 2 contest vs. Cal Poly.

2006 (21-10, 12-6 MVC, Final RPI of 57)

Creighton's first team to win 20 or more matches ranked among the national leaders in attendance as well. A five-set road win at Wichita State and exciting four-set match against eventual national champion Nebraska before more than 12,000 fans prove the program reached previously unprecedented heights. Kelly Goc and Korie Lebeda were both named First Team All-Valley as the Jays beat three teams that reached the NCAA Tournament.

2005 (16-14, 10-8 MVC, Final RPI of 124)

A road win at Northern Iowa highlighted a 16-14 season. Leah Ratzlaff repeated her First Team All-MVC honors and finished 12th in league history in career kills. Freshman Korie Lebeda topped the MVC with a school-record 13.34 assists per set and was joined by talented Jessica Houts and Amanda Cvejdlík in one of Creighton's top recruiting classes ever.

2004 (18-11, 10-8 MVC, Final RPI of 95)

A then-school-record seven-match winning streak that included victories at Missouri, New Mexico and Iowa helped Creighton reach 18 wins. Leah Ratzlaff was First Team All-MVC, while Carolyn Decker and Kelly Goc were named to the MVC's All-Freshman Team.

2003 (12-18, 9-9 MVC, Final RPI of 170)

With virtually the same personnel, Booth's first team improved its win total from 2002 by nine wins to finish 12-18. The season marked the program's move to the Omaha Civic Auditorium, and attendance records fell. Single-season school records were set for kills (Leah Ratzlaff), digs (Janeen Piller), blocks (Ashley Williams) and assists (Brittany Coleman).

Coaching Staff

Tom Mendoza

Tom Mendoza begins his sixth year at Creighton, and third as the program's associate head coach.

Mendoza serves as the program's recruiting coordinator and aids with practice, scouting as well as other facets of the program. His efforts helped Creighton attract the nation's 11th-ranked recruiting class in 2014-15 according to PrepVolleyball.com.

He also works directly with Creighton's setters and middle blockers. Last year, middle blocker Kelli Browning earned her third consecutive All-America honor when she was selected a Third Team pick by the AVCA. Browning finished as the program's all-time leader in block assists and hitting percentage, while also being a three-time all-league choice.

In 2013, Browning and setter Michelle Sicner were named AVCA Honorable-Mention All-Americans as Creighton led the nation with 3.06 blocks per set.

In 2012, Browning was named Missouri Valley Conference Defensive Player of the Year. Meanwhile setter Megan Bober was MVC Player of the Year as the Bluejays swept MVC regular-season and tournament titles while landing in the top 25 for the first time. Both women were named AVCA All-American Honorable Mention.

Mendoza's groups in 2011 featured First Team All-MVC picks Laurel Sanford and Bober, as well as All-Freshman honoree Sicner. He helped with the mid-season implementation of a 6-2 offense that gave opponents fits throughout the year.

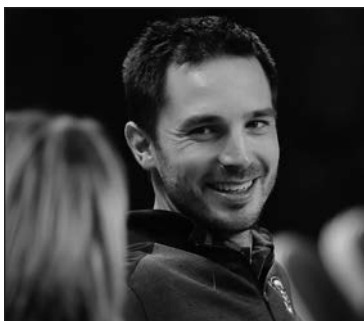

In his first season, Creighton went 21-12 and advanced to its first NCAA Tournament, where the Bluejays defeated nationally-ranked Iowa State.

He was hired at Creighton in June 2010 after spending the 2009 season at the University of Evansville. While with the Purple Aces, Mendoza worked with the setters, outside hitters and primary passers. He also recruited for the Purple Aces program.

A native of Buffalo Grove, Ill., Mendoza arrived at Evansville after spending two seasons as the volunteer assistant at Michigan State. While at Michigan State, Mendoza and the Spartans appeared in the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2007. He also served on the Michigan State volleyball summer camp staff in 2007 and 2008 and directed Spartan Session volleyball camps and clinics.

A three-year letterwinner in volleyball at Newman University and a one-year letterwinner at Lewis University, Mendoza had an outstanding playing career. He was a 10-time Mid-America Men's Volleyball Intercollegiate Conference Setter of the Week and was a three-time all-conference selection. During his playing career, he was also named an NAIA All-American.

Mendoza received his bachelor's degree in management information systems from Lewis University in Romeoville, Ill.

Angie Oxley Behrens

A former national champion and four-year starter at the University of Nebraska, Angie Oxley Behrens returns for her 13th season as an assistant coach at Creighton. An original member of Kirsten Bernthal Booth's staff, she is the longest-tenured assistant coach in program history.

Behrens works closely with Creighton's outside hitters, while also assisting with scouting and recruiting.

The Bluejays have spent parts of each of the last three seasons ranked in the Top 25, continuing an upward trend. The last dozen years have seen the Creighton team compile its top nine single-season kill totals all-time, as well as the top five individual single-season marks that were set by Leah Ratzlaff, Alicia Runge and Kelly Goc.

Behrens has trained five outside hitters to all-conference honors, including Leah Ratzlaff (2004, 2005), Amanda Cvejdlík (2008), Melanie Jereb (2012), Leah McNary (2013) and Jess Bird (2014).

Behrens has seen Creighton go 235-137 in her 12 seasons on the bench, including NCAA Tournament wins in 2010, 2012 and 2013.

While at NU, Behrens won three Big 12 titles, was named 1997 Big 12 Freshman of the Year and was chosen as the University's female student-athlete of the year in 2001 after leading the Cornhuskers to a 34-0 mark and national title in the fall of 2000 as a senior.

She closed her career as the NU's all-time digs leader with 1,086.

In the classroom, Behrens was a Chancellor's Scholar and four-time Highest Honors Distinction Medal honoree. She also was a four-year academic All-Big 12 selection, a recipient of an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship and one of 10 finalists for the 2001 NCAA Woman of the Year. She was also a member of the Mortar Board Honor Society, Pi Lambda Theta Honor Society, Golden Key, 2000 Homecoming Royalty Court and the Dean's List.

Along with her coaching duties, Behrens helps organize Creighton's volleyball camps in addition to her role in the Bluejay compliance office.

Behrens and her husband, Matt, were married in 2006. The couple resides in Lincoln with their two kids, Logan (5) and Hattie (2).

Creighton wore "Team Sicner" shirts on Senior Day to honor the late Cheryl Sicner, mother of senior setter Michelle Sicner.

Creighton won the Bluejay Invitational with wins over Pepperdine, Bowling Green and Wichita State last season.

Michelle Sicner, Jess Bird, Melanie Jereb, Katie Thompson and Marysa Wilkinson took part in a superhero themed scavenger hunt during the team's August preseason camp.

The Creighton team enjoys the comforts of a charter flight to Georgetown.

Creighton celebrated the outright BIG EAST regular-season title with a 3-0 sweep over Villanova.

Kelli Browning, Leah McNary, Katie Thompson, Katie Neisler and Michelle Sicner reached three NCAA Tournaments, won two conference titles, and won more matches (94) than any other senior class in program history.

Associate Athletic Director Mark Burgers presents Kelli Browning with the Female Athlete of the Year Award at Creighton's Hall of Fame Banquet.

Kill Records

Kills and Kills Per Set

A kill is awarded to a player any time an attack is unreturnable by the opposition and is a direct cause of the opponent not returning the ball, or any time the attack leads directly to a blocking error by the opposition. A kill leads directly to a point.

Kills Per Set = Kills / Sets Played

About These Records

These records only reflect matches played since Creighton volleyball's reinstatement in 1994. Persons with more information on the teams from 1973-80 are encouraged to contact the Creighton Sports Information Office at (402) 280-5544 to help rebuild the past.

Names and records in bold on these pages were set in 2014.

Attack Percentage and Attempt Records

Attack Pct. and Attack Attempts

Attack Percentage = (Kills - Attack Errors) / Attack Attempts

An attack attempt is recorded any time a player attempts to attack (hit strategically) the ball into the opponent's court. The ball may be set, spiked, tipped or hit as an overhead contact.

Assist Records

Assists and Assists Per Set

A player is awarded an assist whenever the player passes, sets or digs the ball to a teammate who attacks the ball for a kill. Balls that are set that do not lead directly to a kill are not credited for an assist.

Ace Records

Aces and Aces Per Set

A service ace is a serve that results directly in a point. An ace is awarded if the serve strikes the opponent's court untouched, the serve is passed by the opponent but can't be kept in play, if the referee calls a violation on the receiver, or if the receiving team is out of rotation.

Dig Records

Digs and Digs Per Set

A dig is awarded when a player passes the ball that has been attacked by the opposition. Digs are given only when players receive an attacked ball and it is kept in play, not when a ball is brought up off a "put back" (blocked ball).

Block Solos and Block Assists

A block solo is awarded when a single player blocks the ball into the opposition's court leading directly to a point. That player must be the only blocker attempting to block the ball.

A block assist is awarded when two or three players block the ball into the opponent's court for a point. Each player blocking receives a block assist even if only one player actually makes contact with the ball.

Point Records

Points and Points Per Set

Points are a relatively new volleyball statistic, having been introduced with the beginning of rally scoring in 2001. Points are awarded for positive contributions that lead directly to a point for a player's team. Points = Kills + Aces + Block Solos + .5(Block Assists)

Points Per Set = Points / Sets Played

Sets and Matches Played Records

Sets Played and Matches Played/Won

A set played is credited to a person that participates in at least one point during a set, which were played to 30 (or 15 in the fifth set) until 2007. Effective in 2008, the first four sets are now played to 25. A match played is credited to a person who participates in at least one point at any time during a match. Matches are played as a best-of-five.

Head Coach History

Ben Guiliano

Ben Guiliano helped lay the groundwork for Creighton volleyball as the man in charge when Creighton reinstated volleyball prior to the 1994 season. Guiliano guided the Bluejays from 1994-96 and posted a 25-58 record in that time.

Howard Wallace

Howard Wallace took over prior to the 1997 season and led the Bluejays to four Missouri Valley Conference Tournament appearances in his six years on the job. In 1997, Wallace was named the MVC's Co-Coach of the Year after guiding the Bluejays to a third-place finish in league play. He owned a 68-94 record in six seasons on the Bluejay bench.

Kirsten Bernthal Booth

Kirsten Bernthal Booth became the program's third head coach with her Feb. 3, 2003, appointment. She owns a record of 235-137 entering 2015 and is the school's all-time leader in wins and winning percentage. Booth was named 2012 MVC Coach of the Year and has led the Bluejays to four NCAA Tournament appearances and three NCAA Tournament wins.

Creighton Volleyball Timeline

Sept. 2, 1994: In the program's first match since 1980, the Bluejays record a 3-0 win against UT-Chattanooga at the Tulane Invitational in New Orleans. Set scores were 18-16, 15-8, 15-3. Creighton ended its first season back with an overall record of 5-20 and tied for ninth in the Missouri Valley Conference at 3-17.

Sept. 10, 1994: Melissa Weisensee has the first triple-double in the history of the program with 40 assists, 19 digs and 10 kills during a four-set loss to Illinois State.

Nov. 2, 1996: Michelle Prorock records a school-record 32 kills in a four-set win over Evansville.

Nov. 10, 1996: JoDe Cieloha finishes with 22 kills, 15 digs and 12 total blocks (two solo) in a five-set loss at Western Illinois for her second career triple-double performance.

Nov. 9, 1997: Melissa Weisensee registers her second career triple-double, and the fourth in Creighton annals, as she finishes with 65 assists, 22 digs and 12 kills in a five-set loss at Evansville.

Nov. 20, 1997: After its third-place finish in the MVC's regular season standings, Creighton and first-year head coach Howard Wallace made their first appearance at the MVC Tournament. The Bluejays prove they belong, topping Indiana State in three sets.

Oct. 16, 1998: Kailey Reyes joins Creighton's triple-double club and the Bluejays win. The first four triple-doubles had come during Bluejay losses. Reyes ended the night with 62 assists, 21 digs and 10 kills in the five-set win vs. Indiana State.

Nov. 16, 1999: Melissa Walsh is named to the Missouri Valley Conference's First Team, becoming the first Creighton volleyball player to have earned the honor.

Sept. 2, 2000: The Bluejays finish a perfect season-opening weekend by defeating Iowa State, Idaho and UNCG to win the Iowa State Heritage Classic. It marks the first time in program history that the Bluejays win a tournament. Melissa Walsh was named the tournament's MVP and was joined on the all-tourney team by Kailey Reyes.

Nov. 24, 2000: Melissa Walsh and Kailey Reyes become the first Bluejay duo to earn First Team All-MVC accolades in the same year.

Oct. 6, 2001: Melissa Walsh becomes CU's all-time leader when she pounds her 1,376th career kill vs. Southern Illinois and leads the Bluejays to a 6-1 MVC start.

Oct. 12, 2001: Molly Moran breaks Melissa Weisensee's school record when she records her 126th career service ace in a win over Bradley. CU opens MVC play 7-1.

Nov. 10, 2001: Kailey Reyes sets Creighton's all-time assists record when she records her 4,019th career assist at Bradley.

Nov. 16, 2001: Kailey Reyes sets her second school record in a week when she sets the career digs mark with 1,224 all-time in a win over Wichita State.

Nov. 20, 2001: Melissa Walsh and Kailey Reyes are named First Team All-MVC, while Erin Swanson is a second team pick. It is Walsh's third straight honor and also the second consecutive accolade for Reyes. In addition, Ashley Williams is picked to the MVC's All-Newcomer squad.

Feb. 3, 2003: Kirsten Bernthal Booth is hired to become the third coach in modern Creighton volleyball history. Booth replaces Howard Wallace, who resigned after six seasons on Dec. 10, 2002.

Sept. 19, 2003: Creighton moves into the Omaha Civic Auditorium to play its first season of matches there. A then-record crowd of 806 fans sees Creighton open MVC play with a five-set victory over Southern Illinois.

Nov. 15, 2003: Leah Ratzlaff's first kill of set two is her 436th of the season, passing Melissa Walsh for most in a single-season in school history.

Sept. 4, 2004: Freshman Carolyn Decker serves a school-record eight aces as Creighton downs host New Mexico to win the Comcast Lobo Invitational, the program's third tournament title ever.

Sept. 10, 2004: The Bluejays upset perennial NCAA Tournament qualifier Missouri in Columbia to open a three-match run to the Quality Inn Tiger Invitational title. Sarah Beulke is named Tournament MVP.

Oct. 23, 2004: Creighton defeats eventual MVC regular-season and tourney champ Wichita State in five sets, snapping the Shockers' 13-match win streak.

Sept. 3, 2005: Creighton sweeps host San Diego State to win the SDSU Invitational. Creighton hits .414 in the tournament, which featured three sweeps.

Oct. 28, 2005: Korie Lebeda surpasses 1,000 career assists in her 23rd career match, fastest in program history to that milestone. Lebeda would finish the year with 13.34 assists per set, an MVC record.

Nov. 18, 2005: Creighton stuns host Northern Iowa at West Gymnasium, beating the Panthers for the first time in 25 all-time meetings.

Nov. 19, 2005: A second set kill by Leah Ratzlaff lets her pass Melissa Walsh for most kills in program history. Ratzlaff would finish with 1,622 kills, 26 more than Walsh, in her standout career.

Sept. 10, 2006: Creighton beats eventual NCAA Tournament teams Saint Louis and Middle Tennessee to win the Blue Raider Bash in Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Sept. 24, 2006: The second-largest regular-season volleyball-only crowd in NCAA history (12,112) is on hand as Creighton faces No. 1 Nebraska at CenturyLink Center Omaha. Creighton wins set one 30-27 and leads set two 23-22 before eventually losing in four sets.

Oct. 13, 2006: Creighton survives a Wichita State match point to rally and stun the Shockers, 17-15 in set five of a road match against the two-time defending league champs.

Nov. 24, 2006: Korie Lebeda sets the single-season record for assists in a season on the same day the Jays beat Illinois State in the MVC Tournament.

Nov. 28, 2006: Senior Emily Greisch is named a CoSIDA Third Team Academic All-American. The nursing major owned a 4.0 GPA and is the volleyball program's first All-American of any kind.

Aug. 26, 2007: Creighton sweeps Stephen F. Austin as Kirsten Bernthal Booth wins her 69th match on the Bluejay sidelines, most in Creighton history.

Sept. 2, 2007: The largest volleyball-only regular-season crowd in NCAA history (13,081) is on hand as Creighton hosts Cal Poly at CenturyLink Center Omaha.

Sept. 21, 2007: Creighton becomes the first visiting Valley school to win at UNI's new McLeod Center with a 3-2 come-from-behind win. UNI had been 278-0 all-time (at all home venues) when winning the first two sets of a match.

Oct. 16, 2007: Ground is broken on Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena, future home of Creighton volleyball.

Nov. 22, 2007: Allie Oelke becomes Creighton's first volleyball player ever named MVC Freshman of the Year.

Nov. 23, 2007: Korie Lebeda becomes Creighton's all-time assist leader, passing Kailey Reyes.

Dec. 12, 2007: Kelly Goc becomes the program's first player named AVCA All-American Honorable Mention.

Oct. 31, 2008: Kirsten Bernthal Booth becomes Creighton's first volleyball coach to post 100 wins with a 3-1 win at Drake.

Nov. 21, 2008: Creighton clinches second place in the MVC with a convincing 3-0 sweep over UNI. The win was the Jays first ever at home over the Panthers in 15 tries.

Nov. 27, 2008: Jessica Houts is one of three Bluejays named First Team All-MVC and also takes home MVC Defensive Player of the Year accolades.

Dec. 17, 2008: Jessica Houts is named AVCA All-American Honorable Mention, just the volleyball program's second All-American.

21-12 Overall, 13-5 MVC (3rd)

Creighton's breakthrough season saw the Bluejays make their first NCAA Tournament, upset No. 16 Iowa State, and coach Kirsten Bernthal Booth claim National Coach of the Year honors from CVU.com. Creighton finished third in the MVC, the nation's No. 6-ranked conference, and then broke down another barrier by reaching its first conference tournament final. The Jays earned an at-large bid, beating Iowa State in five sets, before falling at No. 12 Minnesota to end the year. Sophomore setter Megan Bober was named First Team All-MVC and All-American Honorable Mention as part of a balanced squad that ranked second nationally in digs per set (18.94).

Missouri Valley Conference Regular-Season Champions Missouri Valley Conference Tournament Champions 29-4 Overall, 17-1 MVC (1st)

One of the best seasons by any women's team in Creighton history saw the Bluejays close their 19-year run in the MVC by winning the program's first Valley regular-season and Tournament titles. CU won early-season tournaments at South Florida and Northern Colorado before clinching the outright league crown with a memorable 3-2 comeback win at rival Wichita State. The Jays swept the Shockers eight days later for the Valley Tourney title, and defeat Marquette to open NCAA Tournament play before falling at Minnesota. Megan Bober was named MVC Player of the Year and Tournament MVP, while Kelli Browning was tabbed MVC Defensive Player of the Year. Both women were named AVCA All-American Honorable Mention and were joined on the All-MVC First Team by Melanie Jereb. Kirsten Bernthal Booth was named MVC Coach of the Year and CaptainU National Coach of the Year. Creighton spent four weeks in the AVCA Top 25 for the first time, reaching as high as No. 21, before finishing No. 24.

23-9 Overall, 12-4 BIG EAST (2nd)

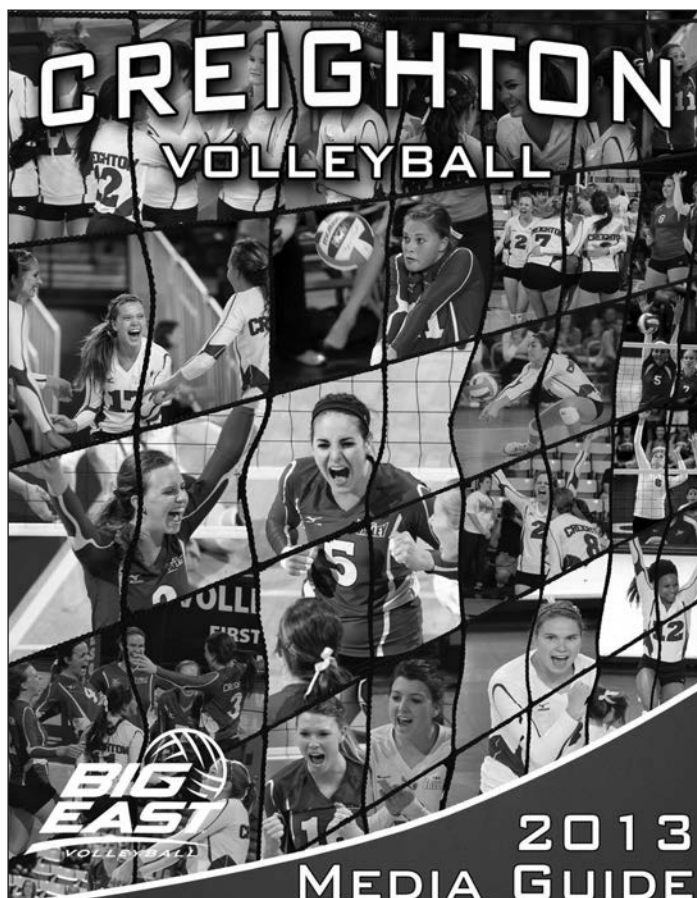

Creighton's first year in the BIG EAST Conference saw the Bluejays reach the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the third time in four years. Creighton would go 9-3 against a grueling non-conference schedule and move into the AVCA Top 25 for the first six weeks. The Bluejays opened the year with a win over No. 13 BYU, and would later earn impressive wins over Kansas, Cal State Northridge and Wichita State before opening league play. Creighton swept eventual BIG EAST regular-season and tournament champ Marquette in mid-October, and would earn the No. 2 seed for the league tourney in Omaha before falling in four to the Golden Eagles in the title match. Creighton topped Arkansas in the NCAA Tournament before being eliminated in four close sets at Kansas. Kelli Browning and Leah McNary were named First Team All-BIG EAST, while Michelle Sicner was a second team all-conference pick. Both Browning and Sicner went on to earn AVCA All-American Honorable-Mention accolades. The Bluejays led the nation with 3.06 blocks per set.

NCAA Tournament Teams

2014 NCAA Tournament

25-9 Overall, 16-2 BIG EAST (1st)

Creighton won the BIG EAST regular-season and Tournament titles while reaching the NCAA Tournament for the fourth time in five seasons. Creighton went 7-6 in non-conference play against a schedule stacked with five ranked teams while winning its Bluejay Invitational for the first time. The Bluejays went 16-2 in league play, losing twice to Seton Hall, before beating the Pirates in four sets for the school's first BIG EAST Tournament crown in any sport. Creighton fell to Oregon State in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in four sets in Topeka, Kan. Individually, Kelli Browning was named Third Team All-American, the third straight season she's been honored by the AVCA. She finished her career as Creighton's all-time leader in block assists and hitting percentage, and joined Leah McNary in the 1,000-kill club. Jess Bird joined Browning as a First Team All-BIG EAST pick, while Lauren Smith was a Second Team All-BIG EAST honoree and went on to be named BIG EAST Tournament MVP. Kate Elman became Creighton's all-time leader in digs but broke her wrist mid-season and was replaced capably by Melanie Jereb. Maggie Baumert and Michelle Sicner shared setting duties, while Ashley Jansen led the team in aces.

* MVC regular-season match (1994-2012)

* BIG EAST regular-season match (2013-Present)

Creighton won its first MVC regular-season and tournament titles during the 2012 season, which would also prove to be the program's last in The Valley.

Creighton clinched the program's first outright BIG EAST title with a Nov. 21, 2014 sweep over Villanova at D.J. Sokol Arena.

Athletic Director Bruce Rasmussen

A member of the highly-esteemed NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee, Bruce Rasmussen enters his 22nd year as director of athletics, and 36th overall at Creighton University.

During Rasmussen's tenure, Creighton has risen to prominence with its success on and off the field, impressive facilities and record-breaking fundraising efforts.

For evidence, look no further than four recent projects that continue to change the area's athletics scene. The Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena opened in 2009 and immediately gave Creighton's women's basketball and volleyball teams a top-notch facility to call home. East of the Ryan Athletic Center is Creighton's new student recreation center that was named the Rasmussen Center in his honor and stands as one of the centerpieces on the Creighton campus. It is located next to the Championship Center, which opened in June 2014 and is considered one of the best of its kind. Last but not least is TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, home to Bluejay baseball and the College World Series, which opened in 2011 to rave reviews.

Those projects add to an overhaul in the school's athletic facilities over the past decade, which has also seen Creighton begin play at two of the finest facilities nationwide -- Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium (soccer) and CenturyLink Center Omaha (men's basketball).

Rasmussen also helped lead the charge for one of the biggest moves in school history when the school accepted an invitation into the BIG EAST Conference in March of 2013.

Since Rasmussen assumed the role of athletics director, Creighton has won 32 regular-season and 37 conference tournament titles, which have helped lead to 72 postseason appearances. The Bluejays remain the only school in the history of the Missouri Valley Conference to make 16 straight men's basketball postseasons, and have made the NCAA Tournament in men's soccer in 22 of the past 23 years. The Creighton softball team has made six NCAA Tournament appearances in the last 13 years. Creighton was also recognized with the MVC All-Academic Award in seven of its last nine seasons in the league, including a record 3.37 GPA in the spring of 2012 by student-athletes.

A member of the College World Series of Omaha, Inc., Executive Committee, Rasmussen continues to play a vital role in Creighton and the city of Omaha remaining as host of the College World Series. He was one of six individuals on the CWS Oversight Committee that helped decide the location for the new downtown TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, which will help keep the CWS in Omaha for another 25 years. With Creighton serving as host, the CWS has welcomed more than 300,000 fans in each of the last 10 years.

Rasmussen was one of four regional winners from the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) to take home a 2004 GeneralSports TURF Systems AD of the Year Award. In both 2010 and 2015, Rasmussen was honored with an Under Armour AD of the Year award by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics. In 2008, he was inducted into the Omaha Sports Hall of Fame.

Creighton's reputation as one of the nation's top academic institutions is reflected in the success the Bluejay student-athletes have had in the classroom during Rasmussen's service as athletics director. Creighton's baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, women's golf, women's soccer as well as men's and women's tennis teams all have received national awards for their academic success. Bluejay student-athletes have owned GPAs of 3.30 or above in 18 straight semesters entering the fall of 2015.

Creighton's primary annual athletics fundraising events are the Bluejay Bash and the Bluejay Jamboree. Under Rasmussen's leadership, each of these events continues to raise record-breaking funds for Creighton athletics. Most notably, the 2014 Jamboree generated more than $500,000 through its gourmet dinner, raffle and auction.

Rasmussen accepted the associate athletics director position in 1992 after a 12-year run as the winningest coach in Creighton women's basketball history (196-147), that culminating in the program's historic 1991-92 season.

The 1992 Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year, Rasmussen led the 1991-92 Bluejay women to a program-record 28 wins (28-4), the WAC regular-season and tournament championships and a first-round NCAA Tournament victory in the program's first-ever trip to the "Big Dance." With that 28-4 record in 1991-92, Rasmussen completed his college coaching career with a 196-147 record, good for a .571 winning percentage.

After serving as associate athletics director for two years, 1992-94, Rasmussen was named athletics director on Aug. 1, 1994.

A native of Webster City, Iowa, Rasmussen and his wife, Jill, have five children: Megan, David, John, Katie and Grace.

President Rev. Daniel S. Hendrickson, S.J., Ph.D.

The Rev. Daniel Hendrickson, S.J., Ph.D., is the 25th president of Creighton University. A Nebraska native, Fr. Hendrickson earned his B.A. in psychology and theology from Marquette University in 1993 and entered the Society of Jesus in 1994. He received his M.A. in philosophical resources from Fordham University, a Master of Divinity degree from the Jesuit School of Theology at Santa Clara University, and M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Columbia University.

Fr. Hendrickson's first contact with Creighton was as a student in the Jesuit Humanities Program in 1996. He returned as an adjunct instructor of philosophy from 2000 to 2003. He also served as an adjunct professor with Creighton's Institute for Latin American Concern (ILAC) program in Santiago, Dominican Republic, in 2002. Fr. Hendrickson was a visiting instructor at Jordan University College in Morogoro, Tanzania, and an adjunct professor of philosophy at Fordham University.

In 2012, he returned to Marquette University as associate vice president in the Office of the Executive Vice President, working closely with the president, provost and academic deans. He then became an associate provost for academic initiatives at Marquette. He was elected to the Creighton Board of Trustees in 2013 and also serves on the boards of Boston College and Xavier University.

Fr. Hendrickson has a special interest in education with a global perspective. His international travel and immersion experiences have taken him to some 23 countries on nearly every continent.

Fr. Hendrickson, who grew up in Fremont, Neb., and graduated from Mount Michael Benedictine High School in Elkhorn, Neb., comes from a family of educators. His identical twin, the Rev. D. Scott Hendrickson, S.J., D.Phil., is an assistant professor of modern languages at Loyola University Chicago, while his older brother, Ryan Hendrickson, Ph.D., is a political science professor and interim dean of the Graduate School at Eastern Illinois University.

Location

Creighton is located in Omaha, Neb., which has a metropolitan area population of more than 850,000.

Creighton History

Founded in 1878, Creighton University is a private university, one of 28 Catholic, Jesuit colleges and universities in the United States.

Creighton Today

Creighton is nationally recognized as a leading university in the Midwest, known for student-centered education and significant undergraduate student research opportunities. As a Jesuit university, Creighton is committed to academic excellence and service to others and seeks to create an inclusive, diverse community.

In addition to the College of Arts and Sciences, the University's oldest and largest college, Creighton includes the Heider College of Business, the College of Nursing, the College of Professional Studies, the Graduate School, and the Schools of Dentistry, Law, Medicine, and Pharmacy and Health Professions.

The freshman academic profile places Creighton among the Top 10 private Midwestern universities with more than 4,000 undergraduates and among the Top 10 Catholic universities in the nation.

For the 12th year in a row, Creighton is the No. 1 Midwest regional university in the annual U.S. News & World Report magazine's college rankings. U.S. News also recognized Creighton again as a "best value" university for giving students the best return on their tuition investment. Creighton was also named among only 32 schools nationally as a top school for undergraduate research and creative projects.

The Princeton Review listed Creighton as one of the nation's top 379 colleges and universities in its 2015 college guide and CollegesofDistinction.com named Creighton one of 71 Catholic colleges of distinction for student engagement, quality of teaching, campus vibrancy and graduates' success.

The University has been named for the sixth year to the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll for its volunteerism, student-service-learning and civic engagement as well as meaningful community outcomes. Creighton also has been recognized as an economic driver, community service advocate and urban developer in a Top 10 national ranking.

Campus Life

Creighton offers more than 200 student clubs and organizations, including academic, athletic, cultural, Greek, political, professional, service, social and spiritual groups, as well as opportunities to work on campus publications.

Nine sophisticated on-campus living environments include two junior/senior townhome residence halls with technologically rich furnished apartments and complete kitchens.

Last year, Creighton students took part in more than one million hours of community service at local, national and international community organizations.

Creighton welcomes students of all religious beliefs and the University encourages students to participate in retreats, faith-sharing opportunities and multi-faith services.

Students may enroll in Creighton's service-learning semester in the Dominican Republic, faculty-led courses taught abroad, or study at one of 161 institutions located in 53 countries through exchange or affiliate programs.

Creighton also has campuses outside of the Omaha area, including the School of Medicine Regional Campus at St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center in Phoenix; an occupational therapy partnership with the University of Alaska in Anchorage; and a campus for nursing students in Hastings, Neb.

Our Alumni

More than 60,000 Creighton alumni live in 90 countries, with 30 percent living in Nebraska. The largest number of alumni who live outside the United States reside in Canada, Japan and Malaysia.

Student Snapshot

Creighton has more than 8,000 students: More than 4,000 are enrolled as undergraduates and almost 4,000 are in the graduate, law, medical, dental, pharmacy, physical therapy, occupational therapy and professional studies programs.

Our students come from all 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and Guam. In addition, hailing from 38 countries, about 200 international students pursue degrees at Creighton. The most represented countries of origin are China, Saudi Arabia, South Korea, India, Kuwait and Canada.

The Creighton Campus

Creighton is committed to being a model living-learning campus environment. The 139-acre campus is located within walking distance of downtown Omaha and many recreational, cultural and entertainment opportunities. The campus design and master plan have received top awards in landscape and architecture.

Since 2000, Creighton has invested more than $300 million in on-campus improvements and planned expansion to create a more vibrant and robust campus:

- Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium, the region's only athletic facility designed exclusively for soccer. The stadium hosts high school, club and international soccer events and a variety of Omaha community events.
- The Hixson-Lied Science Building, the renovated Rigge Science Building and Criss Health Sciences Building form the centerpiece of Creighton's undergraduate and health professions' leading approach to teaching and research.
- Davis Square and Opus Hall are upper-classman townhome residence halls located on the east side of campus.
- The Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena serves as an on-campus home to Creighton women's basketball and volleyball.
- The Rasmussen Fitness and Sports Center opened in the fall of 2012.
- The Mike and Josie Harper Center became the home of the Heider College of Business in the fall of 2013.
- The Championship Center opened in 2014.

One of the many archways that greet visitors to campus.

At the center of campus is the heart of the University, the historic and recently restored St. John's Church, as well as the California Street Mall, the Lied Education Center for the Arts, the V.J. and Angela Skutt Student Center and the Kiewit Fitness Center.

The University recently undertook the largest renovation project in its history, with more than 100,000 sq. ft. of academic space being remodeled.

2014-15 Athletics Highlights

- Creighton student-athletes owned a GPA of 3.34 in the spring of 2015.
- Two teams (men's soccer, volleyball) reached the NCAA Tournament, giving the Bluejays at least one NCAA team for a 28th straight school year.
- The men's soccer team has made five College Cup showings since 1996 (including 2011 and 2012) and 22 of the last 23 NCAA Tournaments.
- The men's soccer team led the nation in win percentage while returning to the Elite Eight. Elmar Bolowich led the BIG EAST Coaching Staff of the Year, while Fabian Herbers and Timo Pitter were honored with top league honors, as well.
- Several prominent past student-athletes reached the pinnacle of their sport. Pat Venditte made it the Major Leagues, Doug McDermott made it to the NBA, and Brian O'Connor won a national title as head coach of the Virginia baseball program.

• Creighton ranked sixth nationally in men's basketball attendance, 10th in men's soccer, 18th in baseball and 33rd in volleyball attendance in 2014-15.

• Creighton hosted the BIG EAST Baseball Championships at TD Ameritrade Park Omaha and played in the finals.

• The volleyball team swept the BIG EAST regular-season and tournament titles, becoming CU's first team to win both league championships in the same campaign.

• The Championship Center opened in June as Creighton's new home for academics, athletic performance, athletic training and men's basketball.

Bluejay Athletics on the Web

Visit the official home page of the Bluejays at www.gocreighton.com to get the latest news on Creighton athletics. The site contains updated as well as archived rosters, schedules and statistics, media guides, photo galleries and links on everything related to Bluejay athletics.

• Free live video for home games in the following sports: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's soccer, softball as well as volleyball.

• Live audio for men's and women's basketball, volleyball and baseball.

• The site is scheduled for an overhaul in the Fall, as it aligns itself with Sidearm Sports.

History of Billy Bluejay

Billy Bluejay is the official mascot of the Creighton University Athletics Department. Creighton is a private, Jesuit NCAA Division I school in Omaha, Nebraska founded in 1878.

Prior to 1924, with no official athletics nickname, University publications and news media often referred to Creighton athletic teams by the school's colors – the "White and Blue," or vice versa. Because of Creighton's location atop a bluff, the team was occasionally designated unofficially as the "Hilltoppers," but the name lost favor because at least six other teams in the country went by the same nickname. At the behest of Creighton's Athletics Board and Alumni Association, the Omaha Bee newspaper coordinated a public contest in late 1923 to select a nickname and mascot for Creighton University athletic teams. After reviewing 200 entries, the Athletics Board decided upon "Bluejays" because the color of the bird was in keeping with school colors.

The Bluejays were originally depicted by an ornithologically correct rendition of the bird. In 1941, Creighton alumnus Joseph P. Murphy, a 1931 graduate of the College of Business and, at the time, a Creighton journalism professor and the head of its public relations department, designed a graphical image of the bird with a more human stance and expression. Murphy's 1941 design remained largely intact for the past 72 years with only minor revisions. While it is unclear on the exact year the first walking costume mascot modeled after Murphy's 1941 graphical image appeared publicly or the first time the image or mascot were referred to as "Billy Bluejay," many costumes were created, changed/re-designed and replaced over the past seven decades as Billy became a fixture at Creighton Athletics events, roaming the sidelines to cheer on his beloved Bluejays.

In October, 2013, in conjunction with Creighton's move to the BIG EAST Conference, the University unveiled a new Athletics brand – athletic logo, sport-specific logos and corresponding secondary marks designed to increase overall awareness of the Creighton University Bluejays – locally, regionally and nationally. The new logo was designed to build on the history, tradition and love of previous Billy Bluejay icons while maintaining the integrity of the past and establishing the new Creighton Bluejay brand as a distinct and recognizable identity in the BIG EAST.

Creighton Athletics turned to Street Characters to provide an updated Billy Bluejay walking mascot costume, one that was more vibrant, more athletic and one that more closely resembled the new athletics brand. The new-look Billy Bluejay walking mascot costume was complete in early December and he made his first public appearance in front of over 17,000 fans when the Creighton men's basketball team hosted Nebraska on Dec. 8 at CenturyLink Center Omaha.

The Ryan and Sokol families were honored during the dedication of the facility at intermission of the Creighton vs. Texas Tech volleyball match on Aug. 28, 2009.

Wayne and the late Eileen Ryan pose with Billy Bluejay at the groundbreaking for the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena.

Thanks to the generous donations of Wayne and the late Eileen Ryan and family, Dave and Peggy Sokol, and many others, D.J. Sokol Arena inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center was dedicated on Aug. 28, 2009.

The 75,000-square-foot facility houses a gymnasium holding 2,500 fans, as well as coaches' offices and locker rooms for volleyball, women's basketball, men's soccer, women's soccer and visiting teams and officials. It also houses areas for ticketing, athletic training, meeting rooms, media workrooms and hospitality functions. In addition, the arena is used for other campus and community events, including assemblies, coaching camps and clinics, concerts, speakers and high school graduations.

The Ryans and their family are longtime supporters of Creighton University. Wayne Ryan, BS'49, MS'51, chairman and CEO of Streck Laboratories, Inc., began his career teaching at Creighton before pursuing his passion for research that led to the founding of his company. Wayne Ryan is also a Jaybacker and his daughter, Connie, serves on Creighton's Board of Trustees.

Dave and Peggy Sokol honored their son, D.J., who died in 1999 following a battle with Hodgkin's disease, by naming the gymnasium the D.J. Sokol Arena. Sokol is a former chairman and CEO of MidAmerican Energy Holdings Company, a global leader in the production, supply and distribution of energy from diversified fuel sources and formerly served on Creighton University's Board of Trustees.

D.J. Sokol

"Visionary donors like the Ryans and Sokols make our dreams of an even stronger athletics program, championed by intensely loyal fans, more of a reality," said Creighton athletics director Bruce Rasmussen. "This Bluejay spirit is a unifying characteristic that enhances the institution's visibility and reputation."

The facility was fully funded by private donations and is home to Bluejay volleyball and women's basketball.

Creighton averaged 1,283 fans per home match in 2014, going 12-3 at D.J. Sokol Arena.

Home Venue History

For the seventh straight season, Creighton will play the majority of its home volleyball matches on campus at D.J. Sokol Arena in the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center. The building served as host of the 2009 MVC and 2013 BIG EAST Conference Championships, and the event returns to Omaha this fall, as well.

More than 182,000 bricks, 654 tons of steel and 30 miles of electrical wire were used during construction, which employed up to 115 workers at one time.

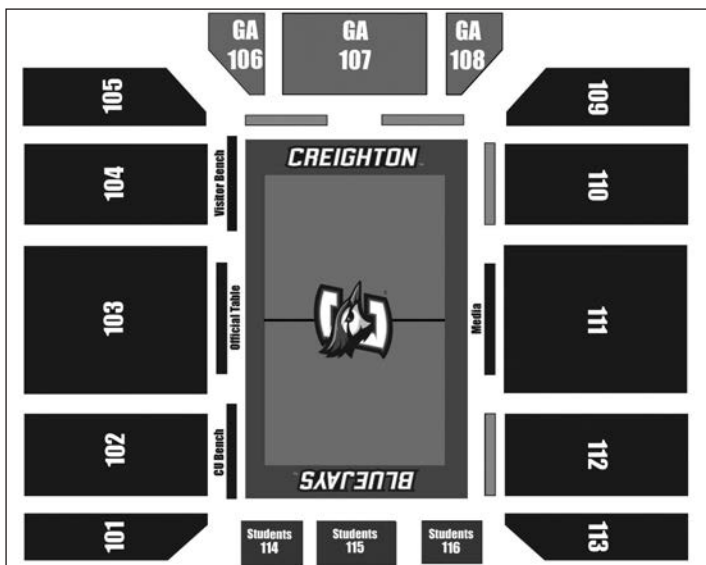

The height of the roof ridge is 78'-10" above the arena floor, with a ceiling fan measuring 20 feet in diameter spinning high above the playing surface.

Creighton has averaged 1,132 fans per match at D.J. Sokol Arena.

Creighton uses a volleyball-specific sport court surface at D.J. Sokol Arena.

In addition to a large locker room and team lounge at D.J. Sokol Arena, Creighton's volleyball program also benefits from coaching offices and athletic training rooms in the Ryan Athletic Center. The Ryan Athletic Center houses the offices for most of Creighton's support staff, including ticketing, athletic development, marketing, and sports information. The school uses a sport court surface for its volleyball matches and practices.

Think of Omaha as center court: a dynamic and unique destination in the center of the country, full of action. Omaha has this special spirit that fills the city like an arena full of fans whose team just won with a buzzer beater. Excitement abounds for what it has built, what it has accomplished and what's still ahead.

It's a spirit born on the banks of the Missouri River, a city founded in 1854 by land speculators convinced they were at the heart of something new. Soon after, the trans-continental railroad was built and Omaha emerged as a hotbed of activity and new technologies.

There is a great story about Omaha's growth in the early days that really speaks to the pioneering spirit of the city. As Omaha prepared to lay underground cables for telephones, workers were trying to figure out the easiest way to string the lines. Being an inventive bunch, Omahans solved the problem by getting ferrets to help carry the lines through the tunnels. Sounds extraordinary, but it worked. Today, Omaha is at the center of the telecommunications industry. Call for a hotel reservation from anywhere in the U.S. and you are probably calling Omaha. The city is home to the Hyatt, Marriott, Radisson, and Omni reservation centers. That infrastructure is also key to the nation's defense. Offutt Air Force Base, home to STRATCOM, is based here. STRATCOM is the nation's eyes, ears and muscle when it comes to protecting the country.

That spirit is also seen in Omaha's modern day pioneers. Warren Buffett, one of the wealthiest men in the world, is a plainspoken Omaha-born and bred financial pioneer. When Warren speaks, people listen, learn and make money. In fact, as you look at the five Fortune 500 companies that call Omaha home, they are all innovators: Berkshire Hathaway, Union Pacific, ConAgra Foods, Mutual of Omaha and Peter Kiewit Sons'.

A view of the Omaha skyline at night. More than 850,000 people live in metro Omaha, and about 1.2 million people live within a 50-mile radius.

It's not just the business community that embodies that spirit; you can also listen to it, touch it, taste it and feel it when you visit Omaha.

Home to the world's largest indoor rainforest, next to the world's largest indoor desert under the world's largest geodesic dome, Omaha's Henry Doorly Zoo is a can't miss when you're in town. Experience what it's like to go underground and see rare creatures that only come out at night, or surround yourself with sharks as you walk through an 850,000-gallon underwater tunnel. Talk about innovative: The zoo just spent $6 million on a research facility allowing it to respond to national and international conservation needs.

Omaha's three Smithsonian-affiliated museums offer a diverse cross section of art. Gaze at a 15,000-pound glass sculpture suspended in the air at the Joslyn Art Museum, hop on board Harry S. Truman's press train at the Durham Museum, or "pilot" a fighter jet at the Strategic Air and Space Museum, home to some of the most prized and rarely displayed military aircraft. Discover how nature can seem brand new as you walk through over 100 acres of lush and rare flora at Lauritzen Gardens, Omaha's botanical center.

Omaha is a mecca to music pioneers, as the city is known by many as the nation's premier hot spot for the indie rock scene. It's home to famed Saddle Creek Records and nationally renowned bands such as Bright Eyes, The Faint and Cursive.

Omaha is a city that never forgets its past. The Old Market is the true merging of old and new. The historic warehouse district was preserved and transformed into an art, shopping and dining district. Unique shops and restaurants lining cobblestone streets, it's a place to remember where you've been and where you're going.

The Bob Kerrey Pedestrian Bridge S-curves its way across the Missouri River. This one-of-a-kind structure is the longest pedestrian bridge to link two states.

It's just one more example of how Omaha stays fresh and innovative, all thanks to that indelible pioneering spirit.

Creighton's baseball team shares the same home as the College World Series, TD Ameritrade Park Omaha.

BIG EAST Conference

The BIG EAST Conference will forge ahead in 2015-16 for its third year in its current configuration. Founded by Dave Gavitt in 1979, the BIG EAST reorganized in 2013, entering a new era by returning to its basketball-focused heritage. The league's 10 member schools today—Butler University, Creighton University, DePaul University, Georgetown University, Marquette University, Providence College, St. John's University, Seton Hall University, Villanova University, and Xavier University—maintain an unyielding commitment to academic integrity, athletic excellence and community service.

Gavitt, the former Providence College men's basketball coach and athletic director, made the BIG EAST Conference a reality in May of 1979. Providence, St. John's, Georgetown, Syracuse, Seton Hall, Connecticut and Boston College formed the original seven-school alliance, and within the span of just a few years the conference had become a national powerhouse in men's basketball. While the composition of the BIG EAST evolved over the next three decades, the focus of its schools did not waver, reflecting a tradition of broad-based programs led by administrators and coaches who emphasize academic strength and fair play.

In December of 2012, the seven BIG EAST schools that do not compete in FBS football—DePaul, Georgetown, Marquette, Providence, St. John's, Seton Hall and Villanova—announced their intention to separate from the conference's football-playing schools and form an independent association. On March 20, 2013, the seven schools reached an agreement that enabled them to retain the BIG EAST name and assume the old conference's long-term agreement with Madison Square Garden to host the BIG EAST Men's Basketball Tournament, one of the premier events in college athletics. The schools also announced the addition of three distinguished institutions sharing the same academic and athletic values—Butler University, Creighton University and Xavier University—and forged a landmark, long-term broadcast partnership with FOX Sports. To complete the transformation, the BIG EAST moved its headquarters from its original location in Providence, R.I., to midtown Manhattan in New York City. The BIG EAST's new era officially began on July 1, 2013, its effective date as the NCAA's 32nd Division I conference.

Val Ackerman, who previously served as founding President of the WNBA, President of USA Basketball and U.S. representative to the International Basketball Federation (FIBA), was named fifth Commissioner of the BIG EAST in conjunction with the conference's 2013 reconfiguration. Under her leadership, the BIG EAST has sought to maintain its reputation for excellence in intercollegiate athletics and has remained influential on the national landscape, with many conference and school administrators now serving on key NCAA committees.

Since its inception in 1979, the BIG EAST has been considered a leader in innovative concepts in promotion, particularly television, and the conference's current relationship with FOX Sports allows that tradition to continue. The BIG EAST has enjoyed a fruitful partnership with FOX Sports and its national cable network, FOX Sports 1, since the 2013-14 academic year, the first under the current multi-year agreement. FOX's wall-to-wall coverage of BIG EAST men's basketball includes complete coverage of all regular season games on FOX, FS1, FS2 and Fox Regional Networks, as well as the BIG EAST Tournament at Madison Square Garden, college basketball's longest-running postseason basketball conference tourney held at the same venue. The BIG EAST and FOX also have established an annual five-game New Year's Marathon at the beginning of conference play. FOX Sports platforms also carry complete coverage of the BIG EAST Women's Basketball Tournament and selected coverage of other Olympic sport championships. BIG EAST institutions are located in seven of the nation's top 35 largest media markets, including New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Washington, D.C., Indianapolis, Milwaukee and Cincinnati.

The BIG EAST has also increased the visibility of its member school programs with the expansion of the BIG EAST Digital Network (BEDN). When the conference launched BEDN in 2014-15, the league became the first collegiate conference to be hosted on the FOX Sports mobile platform, FOX Sports Go, the app that provides live streaming of FOX Sports content. BEDN will carry 225 live events in 2015-16, with an emphasis on women's basketball and Olympic sport regular season and championship events.

BIG EAST Serves launched in 2014 as the conference's platform to align the academic, health, leadership and service missions of the ten member institutions. Initiatives housed under the BIG EAST Serves umbrella reflect the conference's commitment to developing the complete BIG EAST student-athlete and making a positive contribution to the campus communities of its member schools and to New York City, the conference's headquarters.

BIG EAST student-athletes boast high graduation rates, and the league has always been able to proudly say that many of its best students are also its best athletes. Alex Barlow, the starting guard for the Butler men's basketball team that earned a 2014-15 NCAA bid, won the Senior CLASS Award in his sport for excellence in classroom, community, character and competition. He also won the BIG EAST men's basketball scholar-athlete award for the second year in a row. Katrina Coogan of Georgetown, the 2015 conference women's cross country champion, was a CoSIDA Academic All-American and seven-time cross country and track and field All-American.

In 2014-15, BIG EAST teams earned a total of 31 NCAA bids. Two teams won national championships: Connecticut, an associate member in field hockey, won its second straight NCAA crown, and Denver, an associate member in men's lacrosse, also captured an NCAA title, the first national champion not from the East Coast in that sport. Seven different national postseason championships saw multiple BIG EAST teams participate, including six teams in men's basketball. BIG EAST schools produced 12 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, including five in soccer (three male, two female).

Current BIG EAST men's basketball programs have enjoyed extraordinary success over the years. Georgetown, Marquette and Villanova have won the national championship, and DePaul, Providence, St. John's and Seton Hall have all made it to the Final Four. The BIG EAST placed three men's basketball teams in the Final Four in 1985—Georgetown, St. John's and Villanova—the only time this has occurred in NCAA history. Over the past 12 years, Butler, Georgetown, Marquette and Villanova have each reached the Final Four, with Butler making two trips. Xavier has also advanced to the Elite Eight twice and the Sweet 16 four other times.

BIG EAST student-athletes have achieved recent success in other sports, as well. A BIG EAST team has won the NCAA women's cross country championship four of the last six years (Villanova won twice; Providence and Georgetown once), with one runner-up finish (Providence). Creighton's men's soccer team has reached the NCAA College Cup in two of the past four seasons, with the Providence men advancing to the semifinals in 2014.

In the 36 years since the original league opened its doors, BIG EAST teams have won 38 national championships in eight different sports. The conference crowned champions in 22 sports in the 2014-15 academic year, with 140 student-athletes winning individual national titles all-time.

Creighton University officially became a member of the BIG EAST Conference at 12:01 a.m. on July 1, 2013. The 2015-16 season will be Creighton's third in the league.

Creighton, along with fellow newcomers Butler and Xavier, joined a BIG EAST that retained DePaul, Georgetown, Marquette, Seton Hall, Providence, Villanova and St. John's. The partnership was announced on March 20, 2013, in New York.

The 2015-16 academic year will be the 37th in the history of the BIG EAST, a league synonymous with men's basketball that has evolved into a well-rounded league that competes nationally at the highest level in sports across the board. BIG EAST basketball squads have captured 13 titles in the last 16 years, including men's (Louisville) and women's (Connecticut) hoop titles in 2012-13.

Since opening its doors in 1979, the league has won 38 national championships in eight different sports and 142 student-athletes have won individual national titles through 2014-15.

All 10 schools reside within a top-75 media market, including eight schools in a top-35 market.

The BIG EAST became a reality on May 31, 1979, following a meeting of athletic directors from the original seven-school alliance.

"We feel that joining the BIG EAST Conference gives us a greater opportunity to recruit, retain, develop, and graduate outstanding students and outstanding student-athletes. We know that continued success and excellence in each of our athletics programs will not be easy. We chose to join the BIG EAST not because it will be easy to be successful, we know it will be difficult. At Creighton University, we believe that goals that are difficult to achieve are the most worthwhile."

Academic and Athletic Success

- Creighton's student-athletes combined for a 3.34 GPA last spring. The student-athletes also own a 3.34 cumulative GPA.
- The NCAA uses a tool for the evaluation of the academic quality of participating programs. The Academic Progress Report is intended to gauge the progress student-athletes are making to degree completion and graduation. In the spring of 2015, Creighton had six teams post multi-year APR scores in the top 10 percent of all squads in their respective sports: women's tennis, women's basketball, volleyball, men's basketball, men's golf and men's tennis.
- Seven Creighton Volleyball student-athletes earned a 3.5 GPA or better during the spring 2015 semester.
- Creighton had 154 student-athletes (60 percent) make the Dean's List at least once last year, including 93 student-athletes who earned the honor both semesters.
- Thirty-one student-athletes (11.7 percent), including volleyball player Melanie Jereb, earned perfect 4.0 GPAs during the spring 2015 semester.
- 196 student-athletes (74.0 percent) earned a 3.0 GPA or better in the spring 2015 semester.
- Eight teams (women's basketball, men's cross country, women's cross country, women's golf, rowing, women's soccer, men's tennis, women's tennis) had team GPAs of 3.3 or better last spring and every team owns a cumulative GPA of 2.95 or better.
- Creighton owns 40 Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-American honors all-time. In 2014-15, Fabian Herbers (Men's Soccer) and Jennie Hartjes (Women's Tennis) became the school's latest honorees.
- In June of 2014, Creighton opened the Championship Center that is located adjacent to D.J. Sokol Arena and Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium. It serves as the new Creighton Athletics home for athletic performance, athletic training, men's basketball and the academic resource center.

Creighton's Championship Center Features New Academic Resource Center

In the summer of 2014, Creighton opened its Championship Center, a facility that will benefit all student-athletes for years to come. Located adjacent to D.J. Sokol Arena and the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center, the Championship Center is highlighted by the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Training Center, the Parker Family Academic Resource Center and the Kyle Korver Courts inside D.J. Sokol Gymnasium, among many other features.

The Parker Family Academic Resource Center features private meeting and study rooms with access to tutors, a computer lab, wireless internet, couches, tables, chairs and many more accoutrements to help Bluejay student-athletes make the most of their time.
